

Extinguishing Basics (e-learning or classroom) (BT-F07)

Objectives

After completion the participant understands the basics of fire, how a fire can be extinguished, and why there are so many different extinguishing systems on the market. This training is both channel and portfolio neutral.

Target Group

Field Engineers / Partners
Sales Representatives

Content

The fire | What is a fire?
The enemies of the fire | What are the basic elements needed to extinguish a fire?
Extinguishing system equipment | What does an extinguishing system look like?
Customer property at risk | What is there to know about the risks of the customer's property?
Choosing the right extinguishing system | Why are so many different extinguishing systems needed?
Where to find related documentation, marketing material and further training modules within the field of extinguishing
Is the fire out? (Workshop)
Prove the learned. Final exam.

Prerequisites

No specific prerequisites are required.

Note

Slides: English
e-learning: English

Type

Face-to-face training

Duration

3 hours

Language

de, en, fr, nl