

ALPHA 3200 Niederspannungs-Schaltanlagen - Montage (LV-ALPHAPB)

Objectives

The participant will be able to convert the switchgear requirements into actual switchgear systems "ALPHA 3200" reliably and efficiently. He will become familiar with the relevant stipulations and get to know the installation methods, functions and switching devices as well as how they are connected to the communication environment. He will also become familiar with the various components and will be able to build in "ALPHA 3200".

Target Group

Employees / supervisors

Content

- Quality management
- Overview "ALPHA 3200"
- Use of the software SIMARIS Configuration in shop floor
- Mounting of busbar
- Mounting of components

Prerequisites

- Basic knowledge of electrical engineering and power distribution
- Basic knowledge of Siemens electrical components
- Safety work shoes

Type

Face-to-face training

Duration

1 day

Language

de