

Creativity Master Class (1 week) (CREAT-MC-1W)

Short Description

The Creativity Master Class is designed to continuously train your creativity, fostering long-term development as a more creative individual. Creativity is not a straightforward, one-size-fits-all process; it can't be forced. Instead, it's a complex skill comprising various behaviors. Demonstrating these behaviors frequently enhances the likelihood of generating creative ideas and solutions. Much like a muscle, the more you use this creative "muscle," the stronger and more creative you become. The Creativity Master Class comprises five modules representing the five behavior clusters of creativity, featuring a total of 18 sub-modules to help you establish creativity as a routine in your daily (work-)life.

Science-Based Program: Grounded in the latest research insights, the Master Class integrates proven methods and activities. By focusing on your own unique creativity profile, the class forms an individual learning experience rooted in science.

Immersive Creativity Experience: The modules explore a wide range of strategies for creative thinking and are supplemented by engaging homework assignments. These are intended to be provocative, interactive, and challenging – motivating you to leave your comfort zone and explore the world of creative possibilities.

Designed for your (work) life and your team: Everything you learn in the Creativity Master Class is applicable to your professional and everyday life. Creativity is an invaluable skill that can be applied anywhere and everywhere. Don't miss the opportunity to develop your #1 skill for the future.
